

Dwight Bower, H. W. Lochner, Sr. Vice President, Meeting Moderator/Forum Consultant

“Thank you, Chuck. We have a fairly full day and we don’t want anybody to feel like that they don’t have the opportunity to speak out. This is a forum, it is your forum, and we want to be sure that everyone is given the opportunity to participate.

I am Dwight Bower. I want to introduce myself for anyone who might not know me. I am currently Sr. Vice President for H. W. Lochner, Inc., with corporate headquarters out of Chicago. Our team that is going to assist you with this endeavor will be myself, Tom Warne, currently President of Tom Warne Associates, LLC, in Salt Lake City, and ex-Director of the Utah DOT, and Susan Bale, who is sitting in the back. She works for Lochner and will be assisting with meeting supplies and coordination. We look forward to helping you to be successful in this effort. With that I would like to introduce Tom Warne, and ask him to review the Forum Charter and Goals that are included in your binder, and discuss “What the Forum is Going to Do?”
